To: All Airlines who operating flights to Israel

Re: Coronavirus, Announcement to passengers' prior landing

Dear sir/madam

The Israeli Ministry of Health issued a directive, which asks all the Airlines, who operating to Israel to announce the following prior landing:

“Dear passengers,

This is an important message from the Israeli Ministry of Health.

If you have been to China in the last 14 days, you must take an instruction brochure at the Airport.

If you have a fever, cough, or trouble breathing, please go immediately to the emergency services station in the transit hall Terminal 3.

For more information please call *5400 or visit the Ministry of Health website”

Sincerely, yours

Shmuel Zakay
Managing Director
Ben Gurion Int'l Airport
